VOLUME XXII

PUBLISHED BY THE SENIOR CLASS
HIGHLAND SPRINGS HIGH SCHOOL
HIGHLAND SPRINGS, VIRGINIA

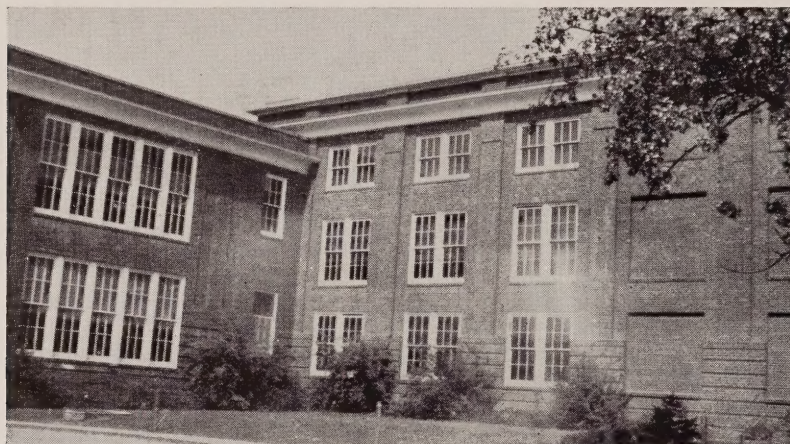

*"A winner never quits,
A quitter never wins."*

Best of luck to you
dear ones. When you go flying through space in a high powered ship
think of us poor people who are grounded.

The Highlander

"Long as the stars do gleam upon it Shall memory come to dream upon it."

FOREWORD

Why we wrote this year book, you say?
Well, we've often wondered, to our dismay,
For now that this memory book is printed and bound,
We are able to write the answer we've found.

It all began in the month of September,
We planned a year book to help us remember
The classmates we'd loved, the teachers we'd had,
The little Scotch Highlander dressed in his plaid.

We've had a long struggle—oft discouraged and tired,
But it only took ads to get us inspired.
The staff worked hard; the Class did its part;
So our memory book came right from the heart.

So now when you read it, classmates and friends,
Don't be too critical as our work ends.
It may not be the best the school ever had—
But our Class published it, and we don't think it bad!

DEDICATION

*Just a book of memories this,
Dedicated to a Miss.
Seems a member of our class,
Seems to us, a jolly lass.*

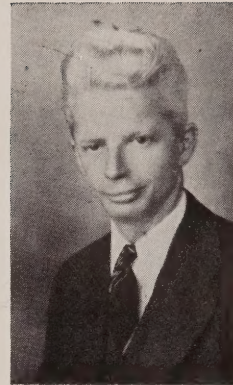

*Guiding was her hand when needed,
Guiding, until we succeeded;
So, on these pages we record
Our dedication to—Miss Ward.*

Dolores, don't belate?
Where is Dolores?
Did you bring an excuse?
Good luck. I guess I will.

But that's not all -
I wonder if there would have been "bears" in the year
Book without you?

Develop the talents you have!

DO YOU REMEMBER

September, 1938

When we were Freshmen . . . herded into the auditorium and separated into different homerooms.

The spring when we first went to the polls and voted for our S. C. A. Officers.

The thrill we got in changing classes in our Sophomore year.

September, 1939

When we organized the Sophomore Class with Farrar as President and Mrs. Everett as our Sponsor.

Our wonderful trip to Washington, when we had lunch at the zoo, a lecture at the Congressional Library by Mrs. Everett, and a dance or two at Hollywood Inn.

Basketball games away from home and the trips back by bus.

September, 1940

The dance we gave the Class of '41.

The school play with the majority of the actors being Juniors.

The One-Act Play that won first place in the District Meet, Honorable Mention in the State Meet, and had an entire cast of Juniors—except the Prologue by Betty Owens. Our Juniors were: Harriet, Virginia, John, and Robert.

The State Latin Tournament and Vivian's winning third place.

The Music Festival and the good rating our Glee Club brought back.

The graduation when we were candle-bearers.

September, 1941

When we found ourselves divided into Seniors and "Whoosits"—and we lost Farrar, Alma, Mattie Belle, Marjorie, Tom, Elizabeth, Shirley, Virginia, and Verda, Betty, Nancy, Ethel, Nettie, Robert, Julia, Aubrey, and Louise.

The hard fight for our privileges.

The big S. C. A. party in the gym.

The swell dance given us by Mrs. Hughes and her Juniors.

The classmates we lost in the annexation.

The Year Book—its thrills, bills, chills, and headaches.

The good times we had practicing and presenting the Jr.-Sr. Play.

The State Typist Meet at Fredericksburg and our proud winners—Jeanne and Regina.

Class Day—lighting our candles from Mrs. Bonnet's.

Graduation—Caps and Gowns—Diplomas—Tears and Farewells.

Tests?

Oh, Test, thou foul and most painful thing,
What unpleasant anxiety to me you bring.
I write all I know and yet some more
To fill in the blanks. Oh, 'tis you I abhor.

Sometimes I think I shall never get through
Those quizzical questions all caused by you.
I rush and rush, and I hurry and hurry,
Scarcely having time enough even to worry.

I finish before I hear the bell chime,
And worry and wonder away my spare time,
And think of all the needless errors I made,
And if it would help any if I had prayed.

PATSY ROYAL.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE SENIOR CLASS

We, the Senior Class of Highland Springs High School, in the year of our Lord one thousand, nine hundred and forty-two, having before us a vision of graduation, and desiring that the beloved Faculty should not fare badly after our departure, do hereby make and publish this our last will and testament.

To our dear Principal, Mrs. Bonnet, we will a bicycle and a set of Compton's Encyclopedias.

To Miss Ward, we will our hearts and an inexhaustible supply of ice cream cones to keep her cool.

To Mrs. Everett, we will a continuation of John Adams, also a bottle of Vitamin Pills.

To Mrs. Sessoms, we will a few more years' experience at Ole H. S. H. S.

To Miss Burton, we will some dancing lessons from Arthur Murray.

To Miss Taurman, we will some colored chalk and a pair of roller skates.

To Mr. Endsley, we will a toothless saw and a rubber hammer.

To Miss Gills, we will a book of really funny jokes to tell in Central Committee meetings.

To Miss Neale, we will Mohandas Gandhi to keep her company in her old age and a bottle of cod liver oil to make her grow.

To Miss Coghill, we will a permanent wave and a frog.

To Mrs. Turner, we will a Math class that understands on the first explanation.

To Mrs. Wingfield, Miss Wright, Miss Mooers, Miss Flipppo, and Miss Beavers, we will some rattlers with which to amuse the Freshmen.

To Mrs. Mann, we will a book of Jazz Records and a bunch of forget-me-nots.

To Miss Luippold, we will a bottle of sour notes.

To Mrs. Sheehy, we will a bottle of T. N. T.

To Mr. Ackerman, we will a bottle of black hair dye and a box of deflated footballs.

To Mr. White, we will a basketfull of goals for the coming year.

To Mrs. Lassiter, we will some white paint for the stripes in the halls.

To Mrs. Hughes, we will the Junior Class and a 10-lb. box of candy.

To Miss Castelvechi and Miss Epes, we will some noiseless typewriters and a new Yankee Doodle record.

To Miss McGlothlin, we will a tricycle and two large red ribbons.

To the Junior Class, we will the management of the upstairs hall and the frivolity that the Seniors must now lay aside.

We appoint as executors to our will Mr. Crouch and Mattie Belle Barnett and desire that they carry out its terms with as much heat as their respective furnace and hair would suggest.
